Technology Pathways

Product Overview

Tuesday, October 14th 2008
Company History

• Founded in Sept 2001
• ProDiscover® first product release April 2002
• Second release - Remote forensics added – June 2003
• Third release – Unix /Linux added – Feb 2004
• Fourth release – Perl Scripting added – Feb 2005
• Released RIP Freeware – June 2007
• Fifth release – Mail support added - June 2008
• Introduced e.s.i.Discover® in June 2008
Customers include:

- Lockheed Martin
- Comerica
- U.S. Army
- Honeywell
- Siemens
- Texas Instruments
- Royal Canadian Mounted Police
- Delta State University
- Florida's health
- Bank of Arizona
ProDiscover® Overview

• Complete forensic tier 1 tool
• Solid industry reputation / book references
• Five Star Reviews in SC Magazine - 3 years in a row
• Utilized in civil and criminal court cases
• High customer satisfaction
• 90%+ customer renewal rate for maintenance
• Utilized in many universities / education programs (including California DOJ)
Computer Forensics Process

- Identify & collect data
- Preserve data integrity – iterative step
- Search, identify & filter data
- Report and present artifacts for evidence
Evolving Industry

• High level goals/process remains the same
• Technologies & Methodologies continuously evolve

• What is forensically sound?
• Evidentiary concept of:
  – Completeness(context), Reliability, Integrity
ProDiscover® Family

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Market</th>
<th>Windows</th>
<th>Forensics</th>
<th>Investigator</th>
<th>Incident Response</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Law Enforcement</td>
<td>Law Enforcement</td>
<td>Law Enforcement</td>
<td>Law Enforcement &amp; Corporate IT</td>
<td>Corporate IT</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>DOD</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Government IT</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| Usage        | Computer Forensics (Windows Systems Only) | Computer Forensics | • Computer Forensics
• Internal Investigations | • Computer Forensics
• Incident Response
• System Auditing
• Internal Investigations |
| Price        | $995             | $2,195           | $9,995                                           | $12,995                         |
New Search Appliance
e.s.i. Discover®

- Designed for early stage identification and collection of user productivity documents
  - Office documents, PDF, and archives containing them
- Sold as an appliance (Redhat Linux based)