Security Awareness & GDPR

Brian Honan

@bhconsulting
@brianhonan
“Why do you rob banks?”

“Because that's where the money is.”

Willie Sutton
“Why do you hack companies?”

“How does this happen?”

“Because that's where the Data is.”

CyberWillie Sutton
What is GDPR?

- The EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) is the update to the EU Data Protection Directive

- Came into Force 24th May 2016

- Will Apply Across All 28 EU Member States

25th May 2018
What is GDPR?

- Updates the EU Data Protection Directive with a Strong Focus on Individual’s Privacy Rights
- Harmonises the Data Protection Regime Across All 28 EU Member States
- Will Apply Across All 28 EU Member States
- Significant (and Fines) Obligations on Organisations Holding Personal Data
What is Personal Data?
EU GDPR Applies to EU Member States
EU GDPR Also Applies Globally
Article 39 GDPR-“Tasks of the data protection officer”

“awareness raising and training of staff involved in the processing operations”
GDPR
GDPR
GPPR
General Person Protection Regulation
BRIAN HONAN
@BrianHonan
Ireland’s Tallest Lepruchan
Human Rights
Global Heat Map

Country-specific regulations governing privacy and data protection vary greatly. Forrester's global heat map provides our clients with detailed, current information to help them successfully navigate each country's privacy regulations. Preview the map by selecting the US or UK information below.

View by: Privacy and Data Protection by Country

- Most restricted
- Restricted
- Some restrictions
- Minimal restrictions
- Effectively no restrictions
- No legislation or no information
- Government surveillance may impact privacy

@brianhonan
KNOW YOUR RIGHTS
The right of transparency and modalities

- The right to be informed
- Rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling
- The right of access
- The right to data portability
- The right to rectification
- The right to object
- The right to be forgotten
- The right for notification obligation
- The right to restrict processing