SANS' annual dedicated Digital Forensics and Incident Response (DFIR) Summit & Training event returns for 13 days of intensive training and excellent networking opportunities.

The Summit brings together DFIR practitioners who share their experiences, case studies and stories from the field. Summit attendees will explore real-world applications of technologies and solutions from all aspects of the fields of digital forensics and incident response.

Call for Speakers- Now Open

DFIR Europe Summit Call for Speakers is now open. If you are interested in presenting or participating on a panel, we'd be delighted to consider your practitioner-based case studies with communicable lessons.

The DFIR Europe Summit, one of the most exciting DFIR events in the EMEA region which draws participants from around the world, offers speakers the opportunity for exposure and recognition as industry leaders. If you have something substantive, challenging, and original to offer, you are encouraged to submit a proposal.
