Solutions Exposition:
Oct 22-23, 2018

Event Dates: Oct 22 - Oct 29
Embassy Suites Denver
Downtown Convention Center
Expected Attendance: 80-100

SANS expositions create environments where our sponsors can introduce their products and services to the SANS community of cybersecurity professionals. Our attendees immediately understand the value you provide and are likely to have influence over purchasing decisions. SANS provides the training our community requires and you provide the tools.

SANS Solutions Expositions: Better Audience, Better Service, Better Experience

"The staff at SANS tirelessly helps our company achieve maximum exposure and success during SANS event through creative and cost effective exhibiting options. Their full-service approach makes for stress-free booth experience, and allows us to focus on connecting with highly qualified attendees."

- VMRay

DevOps and Cloud
Application Security

Learn to reinvent security in a DevOps world at the second annual SANS Secure DevOps Summit & Training! DevOps is radically changing the way organizations design, build, deploy, and operate online systems. DevOps leaders like Amazon, Etsy, and Netflix deploy hundreds of changes every day, continuously learning, improving, and growing – and in the process leaving their competitors far behind. DevOps is now becoming commonplace, and organizations find themselves adjusting their approach to security to keep up with business demands.

At the Summit, SecDevOps experts from leading organizations will present case studies and lessons learned based on their real-world experiences. Throughout the two days, you'll explore new ideas, innovative approaches, and the latest tools for building and delivering secure software. Following the Summit, enhance your training experience with one of four SANS information security courses.
